The Life of Johann Heinrich Pestalozzi: Overview (Pestalozzi Approach)

(NB: This activity best follows the use of the preceding word games, such as 'Scrambled Words' and 'Word Search'.)

The facilitator, dividing the participants into groups of three, gives each group the 'Board Game', a dice and three counters. Each group plays the 'Board Game', following the instructions given.

The facilitator gives each group a dice, a large piece of cardboard, some sheets of coloured paper, glue and several colouring pens. If the session is for teaching rather than assessing, the facilitator also gives them a copy of 'Johann Heinrich Pestalozzi – An Outline of His Life and Work' and/or the sheets of word games they have already completed (in order to find suitable clues).

Each group now makes its own Board Game, including counters, instructions and lists of questions with answers listed separately. The complexity of the games will vary according to the participants' level.

(NB: participantss should be encouraged to think up different types of board games.)

Groups test out their own Board Game until each group has finished making its Board Game. The groups then exchange Board Games and play a Board Game made by a different group.

- One dice and three counters
- One copy of Section 1 'Johann Heinrich Pestalozzi – An Outline of His Life and Work'
