The Life of Johann Heinrich Pestalozzi: Overview (Pestalozzi Approach)

Step 1

The participants and facilitator together think of the places associated with Pestalozzi and the books that he wrote and list these on the blackboard. (NB: The list must include all the places and book titles found in the 'Find the Phrase' puzzle)

The participants ask each other questions and make statements about each place and book title listed. (For example, 'What is the name of Pestalozzi's famous novel?' 'Leonard and Gertrude'. More able students may go further, for example 'Gertrude is Pestalozzi's example of an ideal mother.')

The participants draw the unsolved 'Find the Phrase' puzzle on the blackboard and, dividing the participants into pairs, asks each pair to copy it and work together to solve it. Any pairs which finish early should discuss with each other what 'life educates' means to them.

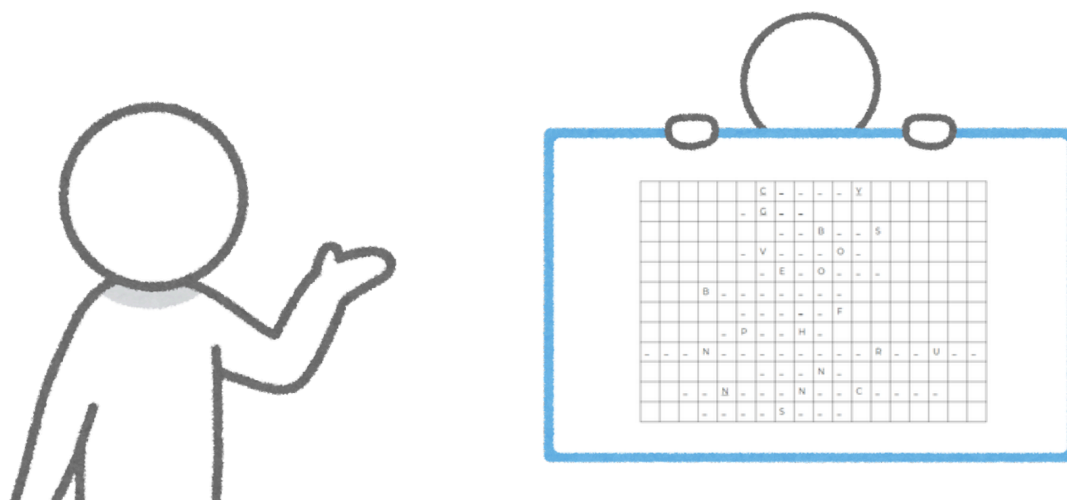

When all the pairs have solved the puzzle, the participants discuss the phrase 'life educates'.

Step 2

The facilitator gives each group of six participants a copy of the 'Words and Phrases related to Pestalozzi's Approach to Education'.

Materials Needed

- Step 1: One copy of the 'Find the Phrase' puzzle
- Step 2:
- A copy of the 'Words and Phrases related to Pestalozzi's Approach to Education' found in Part One: 'Overview of Pestalozzi's Approach to Education' for each group of six students for each group of six participants
- A copy of Section 1: 'Johann Heinrich Pestalozzi – an Outline of his Life and Work' for each group of six participants

Instructions to participants:

- Working individually, each member of your group makes a 'Find the Phrase' puzzle, each choosing a different word or phrase from the 'Words and Phrases Related to Pestalozzi's Approach to Education' to base your puzzles on
- Find proper nouns related to Pestalozzi which can be used, running from left to right, to form the word or phrase you have chosen. This word or phrase should run vertically down the page, as in the 'Find the Phrase' puzzle you have just solved
- Write clues for each proper noun used in the puzzle, also referring to 'JHP' information.

The students of one group exchange their puzzles with students from other groups and solve each other's puzzles.

The teacher leads a discussion, involving all the students, about the words or phrases they have chosen.

Running from left to right, find the names of places where Pestalozzi educated children and the titles of some of his written works. When you have done this you will also find an important belief of Pestalozzi running vertically down the page.
